SELECT - The Greatest Value in CAD

Do you use all the value in your SELECT agreement? Setting up a new civil, surveying or other firm, subscribing to SELECT should be one of the first things to do and firms who already have it should be making use of it. Why? Look at what you get for free with your SELECT Agreement - just fill out a form:

- Free cloud storage for storing and distributing project files
- Use of Bentley View to view, measure and print project files
- Access to any Bentley software for free evaluation

There is an annual or monthly fee if you want more use of Bentley software products including:

- All updates
- Technical Support
- Free on-demand training

There are many options for software usage including the option for monthly rental. Bentley is the only CAD software that can be rented for only the months for which it is needed - never pay for months in which no use is made of the software!

So what are you waiting for? Sign your free SELECT agreement today and start using the free features now! Call us today and we will help you get signed up at no cost.

Then decide what is best for you and your company's software needs to upgrade to the Product SELECT. If you had SELECT, but let it drop, give us a call about our "Welcome
